Anderson County Chamber Hosts Fall Festival

The Anderson County Chamber of Commerce hosts the 14th annual Clinch River Fall Antique Festival in Historic Downtown Clinton, Friday, October 10, 6:00 – 9:00 p.m. and Saturday, October 11, 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. On Friday evening, live entertainment will be featured in the Hoskins/Lane Park. Market Street and Main Street antique and specialty shops (100+ dealers) will be open along with restaurants and food vendors. Admission and parking are free.

Saturday features over 80 antique dealers and local artisans in an old-fashioned street festival. Dealers from throughout the southeast gather to provide visitors an opportunity to experience a down-home festival that features a great selection of antiques, along with an antique appraiser, beautiful antique cars, musical entertainment, delicious food, and the historic Burr-Hamilton Duel Re-enactment.

Again this year history can be found in more than just antiques; history will come to life through a re-enactment of the 1804 duel between Aaron Burr and Alexander Hamilton. Burr, first term Vice President under Thomas Jefferson, shot Hamilton, United States Secretary of the Treasury, in a duel fueled by years of animosity between the political rivals and personal enemies.

While a duel fought in New Jersey between two national leaders may seem to have little connection to Clinton, Tennessee, festival-goers will learn its significance to Clinton's history as they watch the duel play out and learn how the town of Burrville became today's Clinton. The re-enactment is scheduled for 12:30 p.m.

This is an event you do not want to miss. Chamber President Jackie Nichols said, "The Anderson County Chamber of Commerce is pleased to be a part of a festival that supports local business, boosts tax dollars, encourages return visits by tourists and continues to grow beyond our expectations. We expect over 10,000 for this year's event."

Clinton is located north of Knoxville, Tennessee, just 5 miles west of Interstate 75, at Exit 122. The 14th Annual Clinch River Fall Antique Festival is sponsored by Tennova Healthcare and Methodist Medical Center.
